Key Ideas and Details
R.CCR.1	Read closely to determine what a text states explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from a text.	Standard met	Choose the sentence in this excerpt that gives the most likely explanation for why people suffocate in an avalanche.	Create a new graphic organizer that indicates a selection's main idea, characters, and supporting details, and how these three areas intersect.
R.CCR.2	Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.	Standard met	Choose the sentence in this excerpt that gives the most likely explanation for why people suffocate in an avalanche.	Create a new graphic organizer that indicates a selection's main idea, characters, and supporting details, and how these three areas intersect.
R.CCR.3	Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.	Standard met	What is the main idea of this selection?	(Theme: relationships) Describe a character who struggled with society or family and how/if that struggle was resolved.
Craft and Structure
R.CCR.4	Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone.	Standard met	The author compares the wood on the box to	One well-known analogy states, "Life is like a box of chocolates. You never know what you're going to get." Create a new analogy for this statement ("Life is like...") based on a selection that you have read and explain what you mean. Use details from the selection to illustrate and support your writing.
R.CCR.6	Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.	Standard met	In the last part of the selection, which sentence signals a major change in the action?	Explain an author's use of description in a selection, and how the description shaped the way you viewed and understood the person, object, or event described.
Integration of Knowledge and Ideas
R.CCR.8	Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.	Standard met	How does the author substantiate the success of Title IX?	Think about how an author's bias affects the validity of a claim. Choose a selection you have read and explain whether or not the author's bias has caused him or her to make a false claim.
R.CCR.9	Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.	Standard met	Read these two excerpts from the selection. For which two reasons can they be considered ironic?	Use a Venn diagram to compare two non-fiction selections on the same topic.

Create a new graphic organizer that indicates a selection's main idea, characters, and supporting details, and how these three areas intersect.
RI.11-12.4	Craft and Structure - Determine the meaning(s) of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines or revises the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).	Standard met	In this excerpt, what is the meaning of the word "permeation"?	Describe three or more words that you learned recently by reading Non-fiction texts about a certain topic. Explain why knowing these words has helped you better understand the topic.
RI.11-12.5	Craft and Structure - Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in an exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, coherent, convincing, and engaging.	Standard met	Irony occurs when words are used to convey a meaning that is the opposite their usual meaning. What is ironic about this part of the essay?	Explain an author's use of description in a selection, and how the description shaped the way you viewed and understood the person, object, or event described.
RI.11-12.6	Craft and Structure - Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness, or beauty of the text.	Standard met	Why does Morley list the names of the books he purchased on Fifty-ninth Street in this essay?	How effective were the words and writing style used by the author of a selection? Explain why.
